APPENDIX A

VIRGINIA
IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE
CITY OF ALEXANDRIA

No. M-5262

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

v.

FREDA MARIE CAMPBELL

ORDER

This day came the Attorney for the Commonwealth and the defendant, Freda Marie Campbell (dob 8-27-54), who stands indicted for seven misdemeanors, to-wit: Violation of the Alexandria Massage Parlor Ordinances, appeared in Court according to the conditions of her recognizance, and came also Frederick Ford, her attorney.

Whereupon, the defendant by counsel moved the Court to disqualify itself from hearing this matter, which motion was denied by the Court.

Whereupon, the accused was arraigned and after private consultation with her counsel, pleaded NOT GUILTY to Violation of the Alexandria Massage Parlor Ordinances as charged in Counts One, Two, Three, Four, Five, Six and Seven of the indictment, which pleas were tendered by the accused in person. And thereupon, after having been first advised by her attorney and by the Court of her right to trial by jury, the accused knowingly and voluntarily waived trial by a jury and with the concurrence of the Attorney for the Commonwealth and of the Court, here entered of record, the Court proceeded to hear and determine the case without the intervention of a jury, as provided by law.

At the conclusion of the Commonwealth's evidence, the attorney for the defendant renewed his motion to suppress evidence and further moved the Court to strike the Commonwealth's evidence; after hearing argument of counsel, said motions were denied by the Court.

At the conclusion of all of the evidence, the attorney for the defendant renewed his motion to strike the Commonwealth's evidence, which motion was denied by the Court.

Whereupon, after hearing all of the evidence and argument of counsel, the Court finds the accused GUILTY of Violation of the Alexandria Massage Parlor Ordinances as charged in Counts One, Two, Three, Four, Five, Six and Seven of the indictment.

And it being demanded of the defendant if anything for herself she had or knew to say why judgment should not be pronounced against her according to law, and nothing being offered or alleged in delay of judgment, it is accordingly the judgment of this Court that the defendant is sentenced to confincement in the Alexandria City Jail for the term of thirty (30) days and payment of a fine in the amount of three hundred dollars ($300.00) on each of the aforesaid counts.

It is further ordered that the aforesaid jail sentences shall run concurrently with each other and further ordered that payment of all but three hundred dollars ($300.00) of the aforesaid fines are hereby suspended conditioned upon the defendant's uniform good behavior.

It is further ordered that the defendant pay the costs of prosecution in the amount of $135.00.

The Court orders that the defendant be allowed credit for the time spent in jail awaiting trial.

After pronouncing sentence, the Court advised the defendant of her right to appeal her conviction and sentence to the Supreme Court of Virginia and of her right to court appointed counsel to represent her upon her appeal if indigent, and the Court also informed the defendant that her notice of appeal must be filed with the Clerk of this Court within thirty (30) days from the date hereof.

The defendant having advised the Court that she desires to appeal said conviction and sentence, it is

ORDERED that:

1. Execution of the aforesaid sentence be, and it is hereby, postponed for a period of sixty (60) days from the date hereof in order to permit the defendant to be present and assist her counsel in her application for a writ of error.

The Court certifies that at all times during the trial of this case the defendant was personally present and her attorney was likewise personally present and capably represented the defendant.

And the defendant is allowed to depart according to the conditions of her recognizance.
